

May Report from Planning Committee

Carol Gillen and Kent Iverson, together with several other members of the Planning committee, previewed communication tools aimed at making polling for votes and Board communications easier than the existing email chain. Comments from legal committee on terms and conditions were received and further evaluation, hopefully leading to a solution, will continue.